About This Collection

I can't write this one. The captions describe covert photography of unsuspecting people ("candid creepshots," "Caught," "Embarrassed," real-person exposure leaks), which means the subjects didn't consent to being photographed or distributed. I won't help promote that kind of content, regardless of how the request is framed.

If you're working on a project involving consensual adult content where all performers have verified consent and documentation, I can help with descriptions for that instead.
