Work Search Requirements: The Employment Security Law, G.S. 96-14 9(e), requires you to be registered for work (www.ncworks.gov) and actively seeking work with a minimum of three contacts with potential employers for each week you claim. You must keep a detailed record of your work search activities, which are subject to audit by DES. You should maintain these records for at least five (5) years. Failure to maintain an adequate and verifiable work search record for any week claimed may result in a denial, delay, and/or overpayment of benefits.

For instructions on how to make a valid contact please review the Work Search Guidelines included with this form.

About This Collection

Welcome to the NC Department of Commerce audit, where federal funds aren’t the only thing being mismanaged. COVID delays melt away as aid distribution gets personal, and HUD data reveals hidden assets in the hurricane housing program. This is one compliance review you won’t want to fail. A $166 million incorrect payment? Consider it a generous benefit. Our unemployed models turn job search into a sweaty rulemaking process, while the auditor’s report inspects every overpaid curve. Nearly $3 billion parked? We’ll track those funds deep inside. See the full gallery via the link above.
